INDIVIDUAL SPECIFIC PROTOCOL
For

Richard W. Fassbinder

The Individual Specific Protocols (ISP) implement the primary goal of protecting minors and the integrity of the Church. Additionally, the ISP serves as a safeguard for the individual priest/deacon with regard to the possibility of subsequent allegations. As long as the cleric is a client of the Office of Professional Responsibility, he will be subject to appropriate protocols, restrictions and monitoring under the authority of the Vicar for Priests and supervised by the Professional Responsibility Administrator (PRA); please refer to protocol number 15.

This ISP for _____ is as follows (PRA to initial all that apply):

1. _____ Restricted from being alone with minors (anyone under the age of 18) without the presence of another responsible adult.

4. _____ The "Clergy Daily Log" to be completed on a daily basis and co-signed by the monitor. The log is a tool that is used for the protection of minors, the priest/deacon, the monitor and the Archdiocese. Although it lists all time periods, it is to intended to provide an accurate record of the day rather than a detailed clock. If you are describing an off-campus activity, please include the place, the general purpose of the visit/trip/activity (e.g. Spiritual Direction, therapy), and the telephone number only if it is a private residence. (For example, it is enough to indicate that you did personal shopping rather than the name, location and telephone number of each individual store.) If your self-description is challenged, some documentation/verification may be requested. The monitor will return the log forms at the end of each month to PRA.

5. _____ Abide by the restriction of residence to _____

6. ___ No inappropriate use of computers, software, Internet capabilities, communications tools or technology. The standards articulated in the Policies and Procedures of the Archdiocese of Chicago and the Handbook For Archdiocesan Employees will apply.
7. ___ Must complete and submit the "Travel/Vacation Agreement" to PRA prior to a scheduled departure.
8. ___ Attendance at a recommended support group _____ (please indicate specific support group). Recommended frequency of ___ times per week/month (please circle one). Attendance at a recommended support group is to be reflected on "Clergy Daily Log" forms.
9. ___ No ministerial participation in the public celebration of the Eucharist or any other Sacrament or Sacramental without the prior, written permission of the Vicar for Priests.
10. ___ Refrain from wearing any garb that would give the appearance of, or seem to infer, a priest/deacon who has canonical faculties and is currently assigned to some ministry (e.g., the 'clerical shirt').
11. ___ The right of defense must not involve the public life of the Church.
12. ___ On-site visits by PRA annually to include meeting with PRA and the cleric.
13. ___ On-site visits by Vicar for Priests (VP) annually to include a meeting with VP and the cleric.
14. ___ This ISP is to be reviewed annually with PRA, VP, and the cleric.
15. Because the private celebration of the Eucharist is possible, during the course of each week one of the Masses celebrated is to be for the intention of the priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago.
16. Any change or alteration to this agreement will involve consultation with the cleric, his monitor, the PRA, and the VP. The cleric, his monitor, the PRA, or the VP can initiate the discussion for change or alteration, and at the discretion of any of the parties, his legal and/or canonical counsel may be involved.

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to all of these individual specific Protocols.

Dear Dick:

I am aware that your term of office as Pastor is nearing its conclusion. As you know, we are presently in the process of reviewing this term, and I am in need of further consultation with your Vicar and Dean.

I hereby extend your term as Pastor until such time as we will be able to meet and discuss this matter further. Bishop Gorman and Father Zavaski are presently working on an evaluation process for Pastors in their twelfth year. If they have not been in contact with you already concerning this, they will be doing so in the near future.

Father Ken Velo will also be contacting you concerning an appointment with me. Be assured of my gratitude for all you have done at the parish.

I take this occasion to extend to you my best wishes for a blessed New Year.

Dear Father Fassbinder:

Following our recent discussion, and based upon the recommendations I have received from Bishop Gorman and Father Zavaski in consultation with the Priests' Personnel Board, I hereby appoint you to another six-year term as Pastor of Prince of Peace Parish, Lake Villa.

It is my understanding that you will begin to develop the Finance Council and Parish Council, as well as the Stewardship Program and a Long-range Planning Committee. I am sure that these structures will assist you in the overall administration of the parish and will involve more people in this growing faith community.

Dick, the evaluation in which you have recently taken part affirmed your many talents and highlighted the fact that you are well-liked and respected by your parishioners. Your warmth, care and enthusiasm have been the hallmarks of your pastorate at Lake Villa. I would like to express my deep gratitude for the important work you have done and for the leadership and service you have offered to the parish.

May you be renewed in your efforts to love the Lord and live the Gospel. Know of my prayers, support and affection as your term of office is renewed.

Dear Father Fassbinder:

In light of your discussion with Bishop Goedert and the recommendation I have received from the Priests' Placement Board, I hereby appoint you to a third term as pastor of Prince of Peace Parish, Lake Villa, until your retirement which, under present policy, is anticipated on your seventieth birthday or the December 31st thereafter.

Also, the recommendation that your term be extended was made on the condition that a Parish Pastoral Council be established at Prince of Peace. Know that Bishop Goedert and the offices and agencies of the Archdiocese stand ready to assist you in order to accomplish this request.

Dick, I am deeply appreciative for all you have done at Prince of Peace thus far. It is my hope that these next years will be filled with much satisfaction for you and those entrusted to your care.

Be assured of my continued encouragement and support, as well as my gratitude.

Dear Dick,

It was good to meet with you on Wednesday, January 29th. As I mentioned at our meeting, I am writing to you as a follow-up to our discussion.

We agreed you would retire on April 15, 1997. As the time draws near, I will be writing a more formal letter to name you Pastor Emeritus.

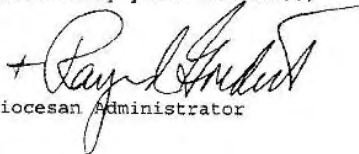

Please speak with Father Charles Kelly of the Priests' Retirement and Mutual Aid Association regarding your pension benefits and other necessary arrangements.

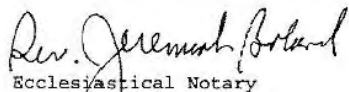

I am sending a copy of this letter to the Priests' Placement Board so that the process to select a successor can begin. You have indicated that you will be living independently. I will have the Board include this in the Parish Profile so that the applicants will be appropriately informed.

Dick, I wish to thank you for all you have done during your 43 years of priesthood and especially for your leadership and service at Prince of Peace Parish. Know of my continued prayers and support, as well as my gratitude.

Re: Rev. Richard Fassbinder

Today I called Father Fassbinder regarding a claim filed against him by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for acts of child abuse. This should have occurred when [REDACTED] was a student at Prince of Peace in Lake Villa during Father Fassbinder's pastorate. When I spoke with Fr. Fassbinder he totally denied the allegation and mentioned that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Next week I will be meeting with Father Fassbinder to talk about this claim against him.

Victim Statement Abstract (FAS-CB15-00018)

This abstract replaces the Allegations of Sexual Misconduct with a Minor and summary prepared by Kathleen Leggdas, Administrator of the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Fitness Review, of Victim MJ, given to Ms. Leggdas on December 10, 2001, formalizing his allegations of abuse against Fr. Richard Fassbinder. According to the memorandum, Victim MJ met Fassbinder at Prince of Peace Church when Victim MJ was in his early teens. Victim MJ stated that he had a relationship with Fassbinder from 1972 through 1992, which consisted of oral sex and several overnight trips.

Re: Father Richard Fassbinder Response to Allegation of Sexual Misconduct With a Minor Made by [REDACTED]
Date: December 11, 2001

Present at Meeting:

Rev. Richard Fassbinder [RF], accused
Rev. James Kaczorowski, Vicar for Priests
Kathleen Leggdas, Professional Fitness Review Administrator [PFRA]

General Information:

Father Fassbinder was assigned as an Associate at Prince of Peace in Lake Villa, Illinois from 1973 – 1976. In 1976 he was named Pastor until he retired in 1998. He is currently living in Leisure Village in a Town House in Fox Lake, Illinois.

He openly admitted having a sexual relationship with [REDACTED] but vehemently insisted it was not sexual until [REDACTED] was 18 years old. In checking the “math” from the years in high school and [REDACTED]’s date of birth, he would in fact have been 16 or seventeen in 1974 when the relationship began. Father agreed to the conclusion although denying he knew [REDACTED] was a minor.

Response to Allegation:

Father Fassbinder recalls that the sexual relationship he had with [REDACTED] extended from 1974 through 1988 and that RF was the one to “walk away” from [REDACTED]

He recalls that [REDACTED] was a senior in high school [REDACTED]. RF recalls “trying to get the guy [REDACTED] he describes [REDACTED] as intelligent [REDACTED]”

RF estimates that he performed oral sex on [REDACTED] 10-20 times over the years. He denies that [REDACTED] ever performed oral sex on him. He also denies sodomy. He admitted to taking nude polaroids of [REDACTED] over the years but insists he destroyed all of them years ago.

█ describes RF as his "life-time counselor." █

RF did not recognize the name █. He did and continues to keep in touch with █. He denies any other sexual relationship with minors.

Re: Richard Fassbinder

Today I visited Richard Fassbinder who is pastor emeritus of Prince of Peace in Lake Villa, IL. Having been retired four years, Father Fassbinder is presently living in a closed retirement community in Fox Lake. He is not involved in any public ministry. Mass is celebrated privately in his home.

I received a copy of the allegation filed by [REDACTED], age 43, which was sent to the Chancellor's office. The allegation was forwarded by his attorney, [REDACTED] claiming that his client, as a minor, was sexually abused by Father Fassbinder while he was pastor at Prince of Peace. Father Fassbinder admitted having oral sex about 20 times with [REDACTED] between 1974 and 1989. He gave the latter money which unfortunately supported [REDACTED]. Fr. Fassbinder also revealed having taken nude photos of [REDACTED] during this time. These were thrown out many years ago. On one occasion Fr. Fassbinder took [REDACTED] to Wisconsin for an overnight.

[REDACTED] Fr. Fassbinder saw [REDACTED] about six months ago in a restaurant at Fox Lake. Over the years [REDACTED] would call periodically for money. Fr. Fassbinder complied by giving him monies in $10 and $20 increments. Father also supported [REDACTED] family [REDACTED]. Father Fassbinder now owns the stupidity this type of behavior manifests. He claims that [REDACTED] is the only person with whom he had relations.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

You have a right to report accusations of child abuse to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services. (The Department of Children and Family Services "hotline" telephone number is 1-800-252-2873). Dear Ms. Leggdas, Thank you for your three letters of December 20, 2001. I'm grateful for the change of protocol concerning Father [redacted] and recognize the decision that you've made concerning the allegations against the late Father [redacted].

Your letter concerning Father Richard Fassbinder sets out a number of recommendations as a result of Father Fassbinder's past sexual relationship with [redacted]. In the light of Father Fassbinder's acknowledgement, I fully accept the recommendations that you outline and rely upon you and the Vicars for Priests to see to their implementations.

I'm most grateful for the good work that you do in very difficult cases. My prayer is that you will have a truly blessed New Year and that the gratitude of this local Church, so seldom expressed by reason of circumstances, will nevertheless be felt by you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Re: Richard Fassbinder

I called Richard Fassbinder and informed him of the restrictions placed upon him in the protocol issued by the PFR Office. These are a result of the sexual allegations filed against him. Kathleen Leggdas will send Father Fassbinder the protocol and further explain the conditions. In essence he cannot be in the presence of minors without another adult present, he cannot engage in public ministry, and will need to meet with Kathleen Leggdas twice a year.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Please be advised that the Professional Fitness Review Board met on December 15, 2001 to conduct a First Stage Review pursuant to Article 1104.8 of the Review Process For Continuation of Ministry. The Board considered all oral and written information available concerning your allegation of sexual misconduct with a minor against Rev. Richard Fassbinder as well as his response.

Based on the information presented, the Review Board recommended the establishment of an Individual Specific Protocol. Father Fassbinder is retired from active ministry. Subsequently, the Board recommended the following:

- That Father be restricted from any public ministry without approval from Fitness Review Administrator and Vicar for Priests.
- [REDACTED]
- That Father not be in the presence of minors unless another responsible adult is present.
- That Father meet with the Fitness Review Administrator twice annually.

This monitoring protocol will be in place for as long as Father Fassbinder remains a priest in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

I sincerely hope this knowledge will be helpful to you in your efforts to put closure on the matter. Remember, please, that the Victim Assistance Program is available to you through Dr. Michael Bland (312.751.8267).

To the Parishioners of Prince of Peace,

At the kindness of Fr. Rich Yanos, I stand here this morning as witness of the solidarity of the Archdiocese with you the parishioners of Prince of Peace. You have been a great witness of the presence of Christ in this community of Lake Villa. Your confidence in the Church is a source of strength for us all.

These are difficult times for the Church. The climate of sin, distrust, and misrepresentation created by a few has given rise to anger, embarrassment, shame and hurt by many. But the risen Lord will and must be proclaimed. He is the only answer - and your faith is a testimony to that fact.

I beg your indulgence this morning on a matter which directly impacts the Prince of Peace parish. The Archdiocesan independent Fitness Review Board has received information concerning the sexual misconduct of Rev. Richard Fassbinder, who was assigned to the parish as associate pastor and pastor from 1973 to 1997. The independent Review Board has determined that there is reasonable cause to suspect that he engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor that began more than 25 years ago. This information has been turned over to the Lake County State's Attorney's Office. The independent review board has restricted him from any public ministry and has placed him in a monitoring program. Rev. Richard Fassbinder does not have an assignment to any parish and has been retired since 1997. The Archdiocese has received no other allegation of misconduct involving Rev. Fassbinder. I would ask any parishioner who has additional information or concerns regarding him to contact Fr. Yanos or the Archdiocesan Fitness Review Administrator directly at 1-800-994-6200. Of course, if you choose you may communicate directly to the Lake County State's Attorney's Office at 847-377-3000.

The violation of confidence on the part of clergy brings heartache for us all. We pray for the victims of sexual abuse in the hope that our Lord will bring His healing power to bear on their damage. In the spirit of the gospel we also pray for all clergy who have abused the privilege granted them in their ordination.

I assure you of the diligence of our Church in holding forth the gospel of our Lord. Our commitment to root out sin and proclaim the message of Jesus's love unambiguously is our mission. You are blessed here at Prince of Peace with a community that demonstrates His love in the ministries established to serve the spiritual and social needs of the parish.

You have a pastor, Fr. Rich Yanos, who is dedicated to your spiritual welfare and a wonderful priest, Fr. Steve Dombrowski, who willingly assists him in serving you. Please support them.

I believe that the Lord will make us stronger as a Church and call us to rededicate ourselves as priests and laity for the sake of making our Redeemer and Savior known to the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Jerome E. ListECKI
 Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago
 Episcopal Vicar, Vicariate I

Another priest faces misconduct allegations

By Julia Lieblich and Todd Lighty
Tribune staff reporters 4/10

Hours after the Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago said fresh charges of sexual misconduct by a Lake County priest appeared credible, Cardinal Francis George traveled Tuesday night to a Winnetka parish that just weeks ago lost its pastor amid similar accusations.

As parishioners filed into the gym at Sts. Faith, Hope and Charity Church for a closed meeting with the cardinal, George said he hoped to speed up the process of finding a replacement at the Winnetka church for Rev. Robert Kealy, who resigned in March after being accused of sexual misconduct with a teenager more than 25 years ago.

"What can you tell them?" George said. "That priests do sin and bishops have not been responsible in responding to them in some cases."

"You have to keep it in perspective," George said. "One percent of priests are involved in this in some fashion. But nonetheless, every case is individual and every case is a great tragedy. Victims particularly have a hard time putting their lives together."

Later, parishioners left the Winnetka meeting, which was punctuated by applause, saying that most of the discussion revolved around what the parish wanted from its new pastor. Some of the meeting, however, was spent discussing Kealy and why the church leadership did not disclose to the parish a past allegation of misconduct.

Remarks George made before the meeting followed the archdiocese's disclosure that its review board, which handles allegations of sexual misconduct by priests, has determined that there is "reasonable cause to suspect" a Lake County priest had engaged in sexual misconduct with a child that began more than 25 years ago.

Rev. Richard Fassbinder, was assigned to Prince of Peace parish in Lake Villa from 1973 to 1997, during the period the abuse allegedly occurred. Although Fassbinder had retired in 1997, the board has restricted him from any additional public ministry and placed him in a monitoring program.

In a letter to parishioners, Rev. Jerome E. ListECKI, auxiliary bishop, said archdiocese officials referred the matter to the Lake County state's attorney's office.

"These are difficult times for the church," ListECKI wrote. "The climate of sin, distrust, and misrepresentation created by a few has given rise to anger, embarrassment, shame and hurt by many."

Fassbinder's alleged victim, a man now in his 40s, called the administrator of the archdiocese's review board in December to report the abuse, which allegedly began when he was a teenager and "occurred over several years," said James Dwyer, the archdiocese's spokesman.

"We always caution people that these are all allegations," Dwyer said. "But the board did find the allegations credible and that is why we took the action we did."

Lake County Assistant State's Atty. George Strickland said Tuesday that the archdiocese contacted him several times last week to discuss the allegations against Fassbinder. Strickland then met with the archdiocese's legal counsel, who provided him with details of the accusation.

"We are concerned with locating any possible witnesses or any other individuals who may have had improper contact with Fassbinder," Strickland said.

Fassbinder, 75, could not be reached for comment.

According to his biography, Fassbinder was ordained in May 1953 and his first assignment was at St. Hugh parish in Lyons. He served as associate pastor at Queen of All Saints in Chicago from 1954 to 1967 before moving to St. Emily in Mt. Prospect.

Fassbinder then transferred in 1973 to Prince of Peace in Lake Villa, where he became pastor in 1977 and remained until his retirement.

In his letter, ListECKI said the archdiocese had received no other allegations of sexual misconduct involving the priest.

"The violation of confidence on the part of clergy brings heartache for us all," ListECKI wrote. "We pray for the victims of sexual abuse in the hope that our Lord will bring His healing power to bear on their damages." He also told Prince of Peace parishioners that "we also pray for all clergy who have abused the privilege granted them in their ordination."

Prince of Peace parishioners learned of the allegations during Sunday's masses, when a priest read ListECKI's letter, said Tim Leonard, a deacon at the church.

"It was a shock when I heard it. What do you do?" said Leonard, 50, of Lake Villa. Leonard said that as the letter was read during the 9 a.m. mass he attended, some of the older parishioners gasped.

"There's so many new families that don't know him, but those who knew him hung their heads in disbelief," he said. "As we were leaving, it was kind of quiet. Some people were upset."

Priest charges surface in Lake George comforts Winnetka parish

Hours after the Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago said fresh charges of sexual misconduct by a Lake County priest appeared credible, Cardinal Francis George traveled Tuesday night to a Winnetka parish that just weeks ago lost its pastor amid similar accusations.

As parishioners filed into the gym at Sts. Faith, Hope and Charity Church for a closed meeting with the cardinal, George said he hoped to speed up the process of finding

More priest abuse alleged

Authorities, parishioners told of claim against former Lake Villa pastor

Prosecutors have been notified that a Roman Catholic priest allegedly sexually abused a teenage boy in the 1970s at a north suburban parish—the second time in two weeks that the Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago has forwarded decades-old pedophilia allegations to investigators.

The Rev. Richard W. Fassbinder, 75, was assigned to Prince of Peace Church in Lake Villa from 1973 to 1997, when he retired as pastor.

He is accused of sexual misconduct that began in 1975 and continued until the boy reached adulthood. The victim is now in his 40s and lives out of state. He notified the archdiocese of his allegations in December.

The Fitness Review Board, an independent church review panel, investigated and ordered monitoring for Fassbinder, said James Dwyer, a spokesman for the archdiocese. The board recently found more credibility to the allegations and last week passed them on to the Lake County state's attorney's office, he said.

Fassbinder, who lives in Fox Lake now, declined comment Tuesday, saying, "I have nothing to say."

"I'm shocked," said Michael Golebiowski, 30, who was an altar boy for Fassbinder in the mid-1980s. "That has not been my experience at all. I have had a couple of days to think about it and never can I think about one incident. Absolutely 100 percent never."

"He was one of my favorite priests for serving mass. I always liked his message."

The church announced the allegations Tuesday, just about two weeks after the Rev. Robert Kealy resigned as pastor of Saints Faith, Hope and Charity Parish in Winnetka. He was accused of sexual misconduct with a teenager more than 25 years ago.

In the Kealy case, Cook County prosecutors said they are investigating, even though the statute of limitations for sex crimes involving children usually is three years after the victim's 18th birthday.

George Strickland, a Lake County prosecutor, said a lawyer for the archdiocese revealed the allegations against Fassbinder last week.

He would not comment on whether the allegations were too old to prosecute, saying, "The archdiocese gave us information that is sufficiently detailed for us to begin an investigation. We will look for the possible existence of more victims."

Helen Golebiowski, bookkeeper for Prince of Peace Church in Lake Villa, says she has nothing but good things to say about the accused Rev. Richard Fassbinder.

Dwyer said he knows of no lawsuits brought against Fassbinder. Under his monitoring program, he has been required to notify the archdiocese of travel from his home and is undergoing counseling. He periodically checks in with the administrator of the Fitness Review Board.

He worked as a chaplain in Good Samaritan Hospital in Downers Grove until Monday.

parishioners about Fassbinder in a letter mailed Saturday, Dwyer said. The allegations also were announced at weekend masses.

"The climate of sin, distrust and misrepresentation created by a few has given to anger, embarrassment, shame and hurt by many," wrote the Rev. Jerome Listecky, auxiliary bishop of Chicago.

Listecky said the archdiocese received no other complaints against Fassbinder, but encouraged parishioners with more information to contact him.

"The violation of confidence on the part of clergy brings heartache for all of us," he wrote. "We pray for the victims of sexual abuse in the hope that our Lord will bring his healing power to bear on their damage."

Fassbinder was assigned to St. Hugh Church in Lyons, Queen of All Saints in Chicago and St. Emily in Mount Prospect before arriving at Prince of Peace in 1973. Parishioners said they were shocked at the allegations against Fassbinder, whom they described as quiet, reserved and private.

"He was a hard-nosed character," said Bob Kadera, a church member since 1977. "But he was very popular. There was a group of people that were very close to him."

Church bookkeeper Helen Golebiowski, Michael's mother and a parishioner for 28 years, said her other son was also an altar boy for Fassbinder. She had never heard allegations against him.

"I've got nothing but nice things to say about Father Fassbinder," she said, adding she last saw him last year when he showed up for a 25-year celebration for teachers.

Retired pastor accused

A retired pastor of Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Lake Villa is under investigation for sexual misconduct.

Rev. Richard Fassbinder, who served as associate pastor and pastor at the parish from 1973 until his retirement in 1997, was named in a letter sent to Prince of Peace parishioners Saturday by the Archdiocesan Independent Fitness Review Board.

Fassbinder, 75, is suspected of engaging in sexual misconduct with a minor that began more than 25 years ago.

Archdiocesan spokesman Jim Dwyer said the church learned of the allegations in December and that after conducting an investigation, the board moved to restrict Fassbinder from any public ministry, placed him in a monitoring program and turned the information over to the Lake County state's attorney.

State's Attorney Mike Waller

said his office is investigating the case, although the statute of limitations has expired.

Because this individual was the pastor until 1997, he had the opportunity to engage in certain behaviors that would have been criminal in the 1970s and 1980s, Waller said.

Fassbinder grew up in St. Cajetan Parish in Chicago's Beverly community, Dwyer said.

The allegation against Fassbinder is the most recent in the Chicago archdiocese, one of many such cases nationwide involving the molestation of male adolescents by priests.

Last month, the archdiocese announced it had turned over to the Cook County state's attorney the name of Rev. Robert Kealy, a priest in north suburban parish. A man accused Kealy of abusing him more than 25 years ago, while Kealy was an associate pastor at St. Germaine Church in

Fassbinder

Oak Lawn.

Last week the archdiocese was named in a lawsuit, along with two other dioceses and the Holy See, in the case of two priests who were transferred to parishes across the country. Fassbinder is accused of engaging in a sexual relationship with a minor that continued over the course of 13 or 14 years, ending in the 1980s.

Ordained in 1953, Fassbinder served as associate pastor at St. Hugh in Lyons from 1953 to 1954, at Queen of All Saints Basilica in Chicago from 1964 to 1967, and at St. Emily in Mount Prospect from 1967 to 1973.

He was named pastor of Prince of Peace in 1977.

Retired priest accused of sexual misconduct

BY TERESA MASK
Daily Herald Staff Writer 4/10

A retired suburban priest who led churches in Lake Villa and Mount Prospect joins a growing number of Catholic clergy being investigated nationwide for sexual misconduct.

The Rev. Richard Fassbinder, 75, is the second suburban priest in two weeks to be investigated for allegedly sexually abusing a minor more than 25 years ago, according to officials from the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Fassbinder worked at Lake Villa's Prince of Peace Church from 1973 to 1997 and was named pastor in 1977. Before that, he was pastor for six years, from 1967 to 1973, at St. Emily Catholic Church in Mount Prospect.

Officials from the archdiocese said its independent review board has determined that there is "reasonable cause" to suspect Fassbinder engaged in sexual misconduct with a male minor while he was at Prince of Peace.

Lake County State's Attorney Mike Waller said his office had been contacted by the archdiocese. "We have received information concerning a sexual relationship which ended in the mid-1980s and began when the subject was underage," Waller said. "The statute of limitations has run out on any crimes that may have been committed during that time. However, because he was a pastor until 1997, we are investigating to see if there were any other incidents or people involved."

Jim Dwyer, an archdiocese spokesman, said the allegations were reported for the first time in December 2001. He said the man reporting the allegations is now in his 40s and lives out of the state. Dwyer said the man reported that the abuse began when he was a teenager and continued into adulthood.

Dwyer said Fassbinder, who now lives in a private residence in the Fox Lake area, is being monitored by the archdiocese and must report his activities, particularly if he plans to leave town.

"He's not in any position to be a threat to anybody," Dwyer said.

Dwyer said he is not aware of any other pending cases being investigated by the independent review board. But as part of a plan to review the archdiocese's current policy on sexual abuse among clergy, the review board is revisiting the handling of old cases.

Meanwhile, the Cook County state's attorney's office is investigating the Rev. Robert L. Kealy, who resigned two weeks ago amid allegations that he abused a minor. He last worked as pastor of Sts. Faith, Hope and Charity Church in Winnetka. He remains in the priesthood but has withdrawn from active ministry.

Ordained in 1953, Fassbinder retired in 1997.

Catholic brother leaves school over old charges

By Todd Lighty

A Catholic religious order disclosed Wednesday that it removed a brother from public ministry after re-examining old allegations that he had engaged in sexual misconduct with children in Georgia and in "inappropriate behavior" with students at an all-boys Catholic high school in Chicago.

The Order of Carmelites said that several weeks ago it began a review of the allegations stemming from the 1970s and 1980s at the request of the brother himself, Robert Murphy. "The re-examination was prompted by Brother Murphy's own concerns over these previous matters in light of the current national and international focus on the issue of sexual misconduct," the order said in a statement.

Applying more stringent policies adopted in the 1990s, the order's Advisory Group on Sexual Misconduct recommended that Murphy be removed from public ministry.

That ruling also meant that Murphy lost his job at Lewis University, a Catholic university in Romeoville. Murphy had worked at the school since 1987 as director of ministry and as a history teacher, said Carol Wassberg, a university spokeswoman.

Murphy, 51, could not be reached for comment. Rev. Leo McCarthy, the provincial for the Carmelite order based in Darien, was unavailable for comment.

According to the Carmelites, Murphy had been accused of sexual misconduct with minors in 1973 in Georgia. The Diocese of Savannah reported the allegations to the Carmelite Province. Sal Lema, a spokesman for the Carmelites in Darien, would not provide details but said the allegations were credible. He said Murphy underwent treatment through 1999, Lema said, and that the Savannah Diocese offered counseling to the victims.

Murphy later became a history and English teacher at Mt. Carmel High School, an all-boys school of about 800 students on Chicago's South Side.

In 1985, the order removed Murphy from the high school after allegations surfaced that he had engaged in "inappropriate corporal punishment," or spanking, involving students, Lema said. Murphy was restricted from all unsupervised contact with minors and underwent treatment from 1985 through 1999, Lema said.

Lema said the order has notified the Archdiocese of Chicago and the Joliet Diocese about the allegations and actions taken against Murphy. Lema said the order was "in the process of notifying civil authorities."

At Mt. Carmel, Principal Rev. Carl J. Markelz said the order telephoned him Wednesday about Murphy.

Markelz said he would wait for the letter and recommendations from the Advisory Group on Sexual Misconduct before addressing the student body.

Allegations about priest test faith at Lake Villa church

BY MICK ZAWISLAK
Daily Herald Staff Writer 4/11

Sounds of laughter and the general commotion you would expect from grade school kids were signs Wednesday that business continued as usual at Prince of Peace Parish School.

Administrators at the Lake Villa Catholic school have been working diligently to keep it that way, acknowledging that recent news of allegations of sexual misconduct against a retired priest has a potential impact on youngsters who have faced their share of emotional turmoil in the past two years.

"They don't want to know details. They want a feeling of safety and security, and right now that's what we're trying to provide — an atmosphere that things are okay," said Mary Rooney, assistant principal and a third-grade teacher.

Rooney said only a "very small percentage" of students had asked questions about the news concerning the Rev. Richard Fassbinder, who retired in 1997 after working at the parish for 24 years. Now 75, he has been accused of sexually abusing a minor more than 25 years ago while serving at the church, according to the Archdiocese of Chicago. Fassbinder also was pastor at St. Emily Catholic Church in Mount Prospect from 1967 to 1973.

"They just wanted to get back to normalcy," Rooney said of the students. The school was shocked in September 2000, when a custodian was killed by his boss inside the school. Both were well known to the students.

Rooney said school officials followed a similar plan then, acknowledging the incident but emphasizing the school was "still a safe place to be."

Bishop Jerome E. Listecki, who informed parishioners by letter about the allegations against their former pastor, said several Masses at Prince of Peace Church last weekend. Counselors from the archdiocese also were available throughout the weekend to talk with the church staff or listen to anyone who had concerns. Church officials did not have any estimate of how many used the service, which is standard procedure for the archdiocese.

The news has drawn mixed reaction in the rapidly growing area, with members of the congregation saying little about what has become another in a series of unfolding allegations involving Catholic priests across the country.

"People were very supportive over the weekend, and people are very strong in their faith," said the Rev. Steve Dombrowski, associate pastor. "We've had no contact with him since he left five years ago."

The congregation is pulling together and has designated an April 23 service at 7:30 p.m. to be a "healing Mass."

Because of the growth in the area, Listecki said about a third of the parishioners in the 2,300-family parish didn't know Fassbinder. Another third may have known him casually.

"Then, there's the others. It's just disbelief," Listecki said. "Some hurt right away and you could see tears being shed."

The archdiocese said Wednesday it was not aware of any new allegations against Fassbinder, who is living in a private residence in the Fox Lake area and is being monitored and must report his activities.

Ex-Lake Villa priest accused

Investigation: Retired pastor suspected of sexual misconduct with minor

By Judy Masterson Waukegan NewsSun
STAFF WRITER 4-10-02

LAKE VILLA — A retired pastor of Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Lake Villa is under investigation for alleged sexual misconduct.

The Rev. Richard Fassbinder, who served as associate pastor and pastor at the parish from 1973 until his retirement in 1997, was named in a letter sent to Prince of Peace parishioners Saturday by the Archdiocesan Independent Fitness Review Board.

Fassbinder, 75, is suspected of engaging in sexual misconduct with a minor that began more than 25 years ago.

Archdiocesan spokesman Jim Dwyer said the church learned of the allegations in December and that after conducting an investigation, the board moved to restrict Fassbinder from any public ministry, placed him in a monitoring program and turned the information over to the Lake County state's attorney's office.

State's Attorney Michael Waller said his office is investigating the case, despite expiration of the statute of limitations.

"Because this individual was the pastor until 1997, he had the opportunity to engage in certain behaviors that would have been criminal in the 1970s and 1980s," Waller said.

The allegation against Fassbinder is the most recent in the archdiocese, one of many such cases nationwide involving the molestation of male adolescents by priests.

Fassbinder is accused of engaging in a sexual relationship with a minor that continued over the course of 13 or 14 years, ending in the 1980s.

While the initial involvement would have been criminal, Waller said his office wouldn't be able to prosecute a case that came to the attention of the archdiocese so long after the alleged incidents took place.

"But these types of offenders tend to have other victims, and we're going to see what information we can develop," Waller said. "We haven't developed any so far, which would lead us to believe there aren't any other victims."

Waller said the statute of limitations for a felony is three years. However, if the victim is a minor, the statute can be extended for one year after he or she turns 18.

"You could have a fairly long statute of limitations if you had a young victim who didn't report it until later," Waller said.

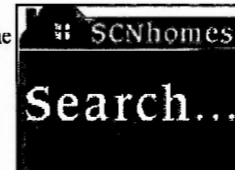

Representatives of the archdiocese and Auxiliary Bishop Jerome Listocki of St. Joseph in Libertyville met with Prince of Peace parishioners during weekend Masses.

Dwyer said Fassbinder has not been involved in any public ministry since his retirement.

Waller said the archdiocese had been cooperative.

"The people are surprised and shocked, but, overall, they're very supportive," said the Rev. Steve Dombrowski, Prince of Peace associate pastor. "The overall feeling is that this isn't going to shake their faith."

Ordained in 1953, Fassbinder served as associate pastor at St. Hugh in Lyons from 1953 to 1954, at Queen of All Saints Basilica in Chicago from 1964 to 1967, and at St. Emily in Mount Prospect from 1967 to 1973. He was named pastor of Prince of Peace in 1977.

This is not the first trial for Prince of Peace Parish, which was organized in 1955 from territory once part of St. Peter Church in Antioch and St. Gilbert Church in Grayslake. The church was the site of a murder in 2000, in which part-time janitor Kevin Killian, a 30-year-old Lindenhurst resident, was convicted of bludgeoning to death maintenance chief John Zeller of Bristol, Wis.

Re: Richard Fassbinder

On April 9, 2002 I met with Richard Fassbinder at Koenig Hall in the Retreat House, Mundelein. I indicated to him that on the preceding Sunday, April 7, 2002, Bishop ListECKI read a letter to his former parishioners at Prince of Peace Parish in Lake Villa, where Richard had been pastor from 1977-1997 as well as associate pastor from 1974-77. The letter to the parishioners contained information that the Professional Fitness Review Board found reasonable cause of sexual misconduct with a minor over 25 years ago. I further told Father Fassbinder that his story was breaking in the public arena and that it would be on all news stations the evening of April 9, 2002. In addition the Sun Times and the Chicago Tribune were to carry the stories.

I informed Father Fassbinder that Father Lawrence Hanley was assigned as his on-site monitor. He also owns a home in the Leisure Retirement Village, Fox Lake, where Fr. Fassbinder lives among approximately 300 other people. I assured him that Larry Hanley will be in daily conversation with him to see how he is doing.

On the evening of April 9, 2002 I called Father Fassbinder as television stations were broadcasting the news of his misconduct. He indicated that two reporters called him on whom he hung up. A Tribune reporter wanted entry to the Retirement Village, but was denied entrance.

Bishops “have been designated by the Holy Spirit to take the place of the apostles as pastors of souls and, together with the Supreme Pontiff and subject to his authority, they are commissioned to perpetuate the work of Christ, the eternal Pastor.” (Christus dominus, n.2b) However, since the pastors of the Church can never be expected to carry the burden of pastoral ministry alone (Lumen gentium, n. 30), they have been given the order of priests to cooperate in shepherding and guiding God’s people. Indeed, bishops, “because of the gift of the Holy Spirit that has been given to priests at their ordination, will regard them as indispensable helpers and advisers in the ministry and in the task of teaching, sanctifying and shepherding the People of God.” (Presbyterorum ordinis, n. 7)

Because of this common task, “bishops are to regard their priests as brothers and friends, and are to take the greatest interest they are capable of in their welfare, both temporal and spiritual. For on their shoulders particularly falls the burden of sanctifying their priests.” (Presbyterorum ordinis, n. 7b)

Moreover, the Directory on the Pastoral Ministry of Bishops states, “In the same way as Jesus showed his love for his disciples....so also a bishop....can hardly fail to realize that he should show his greatest love and chief concern for priests....Led by a sense of duty and sincere and invincible charity he gives willing assistance in every way to help priests to esteem the loftiness of their priestly vocation, to live serenely, to spread joy to those about them and to fulfill their duties faithfully.” (n. 107a)

This same document urges bishops to do “everything possible to prevent the troubles his priests could have....To keep them safe from trouble he takes prompt and prudent measures.” (n. 112)

The Code of Canon Law has described precepts as a means by which ecclesiastical authority “directly and legitimately enjoins a specific person or persons to do or omit something, especially in order to urge the observance of law” (c. 49).

Therefore, I issue this precept, in accordance with c. 49, to urge Reverend Richard Fassbinder to fulfill the obligations which were placed upon him at the time of his ordination. Because some suspicion has arisen about his fidelity to the sacred promises he made at his ordination, I urge him in particular to lead a life which is in keeping with the holiness of his vocation. Although he is not presently exercising public ministry in the Church, he ought to pursue holiness of life in the way that he lives. He is also still bound to the obligation to pray the liturgy of the hours daily, to set aside time for spiritual retreats, to engage in mental prayer, to approach the sacrament of penance frequently, to honor the Virgin Mother of God with particular veneration as Queen of Priests, and to use any other means of sanctification which he finds helpful (c. 276).

Because of the obligation to observe perfect and perpetual continence for the sake of the kingdom of heaven, Father Fassbinder is to act with due prudence toward persons who could endanger the obligation to observe continence (c. 277§1), and to observe the particulars of the attached Individual Specific Protocol (c. 277§3) which I have established in consultation with him.

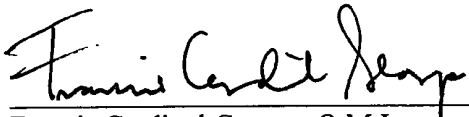

He is to avoid all those things which are unbecoming the clerical state, or those things which are foreign to the clerical state (c. 285), especially those things which are set forth in the attached Individual Specific Protocol which I have established in consultation with him.

Father Fassbinder is hereby dispensed from his obligation to wear ecclesiastical garb (c. 284), and is strongly urged not to do so until such time as the case against him can be resolved and more permanent determinations can be made. Although not removed from office, he is nonetheless urged not to exercise the rights of any ecclesiastical office, in accordance with the Individual Specific Protocol which I have established in consultation with him.

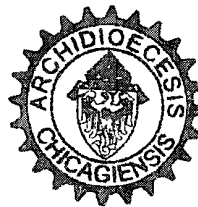

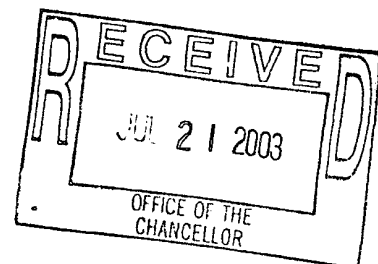

In order to ensure that these obligations are met, I have delegated Ms. Leah McCluskey to receive information regarding Father Fassbinder's fulfillment of this precept and his Individual Specific Protocol. She is to submit a report to me no less than quarterly regarding this matter, and may report to the Professional Fitness Review Board more frequently as needed or requested.

I am establishing this precept in a spirit of fraternal charity, mindful of my responsibility to encourage my priests to remain faithful to the obligations of the clerical state. Because the attached Individual Specific Protocol has been established in dialog between Father Fassbinder and the Vicar for Priests, I accept the provisions of this document, and urge Father Fassbinder to fulfil them in accordance with the obedience he is to show to me as his ordinary (c. 273), and which he promised at his ordination.

Given in Chicago, Illinois on the 23rd day of May, 2003.

Archbishop of Chicago

Chicago, Illinois 60611

Dear Cardinal George,

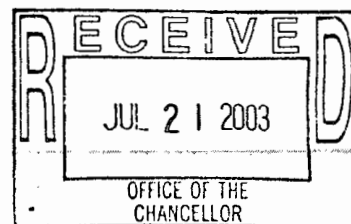

As the Auditor whom you appointed in accord with Canon 1717 to conduct a Preliminary Investigation into the allegations of sexual abuse of minors that have been made against the Rev. Richard W. Fassbinder, a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago, I would like to inform you that the investigation has been completed.

As required by Canon 1718, a sufficient amount of material is now present for you to make a determination. I have examined the files of the investigations of the allegations of sexual misconduct with minors by Fr. Fassbinder, and I have found them to be complete.

There is at least one allegation that was submitted to the Archdiocesan Professional Responsibility Review Board in which the Board recommended to you that there is reasonable cause to suspect that the alleged misconduct did occur. Given the material gathered as the Board's instruction of the case, it is now necessary for you to determine if the elements meet the required standard of proof. The Board reported their finding to you after having discussed the evidence and the arguments in two formal sessions. As part of the procedure followed by the Board, Fr. Fassbinder was read the allegations made against him and provided a response to each. With reference to his involvement in the instruction of the case, Fr. Fassbinder had the advice of legal counsel.

I now submit this matter to your Eminence for a determination. It is my recommendation that the allegation of sexual misconduct with a minor against the Rev. Richard W. Fassbinder has the semblance of truth (notitiam saltem verisimilem) as required by Canon 1717 and Article 13 of the Procedural Norms de gravioribus delictis, and consequently the case should be sent to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith.

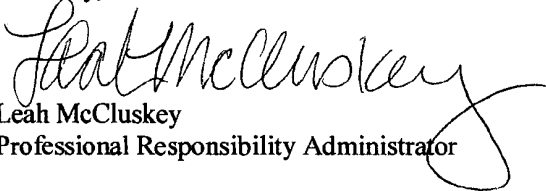

There is at least one allegation of sexual misconduct against Fr. Fassbinder. The Professional Responsibility Review Board has been presented all allegations against Fr. Fassbinder, and has reported to you the finding that the allegations provide reasonable cause to suspect that the alleged incidents of misconduct did occur. It is my recommendation that the aforementioned allegations have the semblance of truth (notitiam saltem verisimilem) as required by Canon Law. As a result, there is no additional information that needs to be gathered at this time regarding the allegations made against Fr. Fassbinder.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at 312 751-5205.

Sincerely,

Leah McCluskey

Dear Fr. Fassbinder,

Enclosed you will find documentation regarding the monitoring protocols.

The monitoring protocols have been changed somewhat. This was done principally in order to put into a standard written form, arrangements that had been made orally and/or on an individual basis. It was felt that by committing as much as possible to a written form, misunderstandings could be reduced and communication would be facilitated. These changes reflect the feedback provided by all those involved in the monitoring program, including those who are subject to it. The enclosed forms contain the adjustments made to the monitoring forms that were provided to you in July of 2003. All those involved in monitoring will be receiving a copy of the new forms.

In designing a form that addresses so many different, complex situations, one or another points may be unclear. If you have any question or concerns, please contact me at [312] 751-5205.

Sincerely,

INDIVIDUAL SPECIFIC PROTOCOL
For

Richard W. Fassbinder

The Individual Specific Protocols (ISP) implement the primary goal of protecting minors and the integrity of the Church. Additionally, the ISP serves as a safeguard for the individual priest/deacon with regard to the possibility of subsequent allegations. As long as the cleric is a client of the Office of Professional Responsibility, he will be subject to appropriate protocols, restrictions and monitoring under the authority of the Vicar for Priests and supervised by the Professional Responsibility Administrator (PRA); please refer to protocol number 15.

This ISP for Richard Fassbinder is as follows (PRA to initial all that apply):

1. Restricted from being alone with minors (anyone under the age of 18) without the presence of another responsible adult.

4. The "Clergy Daily Log" to be completed on a daily basis and co-signed by the monitor. The log is a tool that is used for the protection of minors, the priest/deacon, the monitor and the Archdiocese. Although it lists all time periods, it is to intended to provide an accurate record of the day rather than a detailed clock. If you are describing an off-campus activity, please include the place, the general purpose of the visit/trip/activity (e.g. Spiritual Direction, therapy), and the telephone number only if it is a private residence. (For example, it is enough to indicate that you did personal shopping rather than the name, location and telephone number of each individual store.) If your self-description is challenged, some documentation/verification may be requested. The monitor will return the log forms at the end of each month to PRA.

5. Abide by the restriction of residence to 7128 St. Trapez
Fox Lake, IL 60452

6. No inappropriate use of computers, software, Internet capabilities, communications tools or technology. The standards articulated in the Policies and Procedures of the Archdiocese of Chicago and the Handbook For Archdiocesan Employees will apply.
7. Must complete and submit the "Travel/Vacation Agreement" to PRA prior to a scheduled departure.
8. N/A Attendance at a recommended support group _____ (please indicate specific support group). Recommended frequency of _____ times per week/month (please circle one). Attendance at a recommended support group is to be reflected on "Clergy Daily Log" forms.
9. No ministerial participation in the public celebration of the Eucharist or any other Sacrament or Sacramental without the prior, written permission of the Vicar for Priests.
10. Refrain from wearing any garb that would give the appearance of, or seem to infer, a priest/deacon who has canonical faculties and is currently assigned to some ministry (e.g., the 'clerical shirt').
11. The right of defense must not involve the public life of the Church.
12. On-site visits by PRA annually to include meeting with PRA and the cleric.
13. On-site visits by Vicar for Priests (VP) annually to include a meeting with VP and the cleric.
14. This ISP is to be reviewed annually with PRA, VP, and the cleric.
15. Because the private celebration of the Eucharist is possible, during the course of each week one of the Masses celebrated is to be for the intention of the priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago.
16. Any change or alteration to this agreement will involve consultation with the cleric, his monitor, the PRA, and the VP. The cleric, his monitor, the PRA, or the VP can initiate the discussion for change or alteration, and at the discretion of any of the parties, his legal and/or canonical counsel may be involved.

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to all of these individual specific Protocols.

From: Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator

Re: Fassbinder, Richard [Retired/Withdrawn]

Date: November 6, 2003

PRA and Rev. James T. Kaczorowski, Vicar for Priests met with Rev. Richard Fassbinder and his monitor, Rev. Lawrence Hanley on September 11, 2003 at the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House. The purpose of the meeting was for PRA to provide Frs. Fassbinder and Hanley with the newly revised Individual Specific [Monitoring] Protocols, Daily Log forms, and the Travel/Vacation Notification forms.

While at the meeting, it was agreed that Fr. Kaczorowski would work with Fr. Fassbinder to connect him with a spiritual advisor.

Fr. Fassbinder signed the Individual Specific Protocol form to indicate his agreement to follow the requested protocols.

Dear Fr. Fassbinder,

I hope that this letter finds you and Rev. Lawrence Hanley doing well.

As you may know, Fr. Kaczorowski and I went to the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House on January 26, 2004 to meet with several of the men who are to be adhering to the monitoring protocols. Enclosed with this letter you will find copies of the current Individual Specific Monitoring Protocols, a Daily Log form, as well as a Travel/Vacation Agreement form. This information will also be forwarded to your daily monitor, Fr. Hanley. These forms have been adjusted with the assistance of Rev. Daniel A. Smilanic, Promoter of Justice as a result of the feedback that many of you have provided to me in the past.

Cardinal George has agreed with the Review Board's recommendation that you review and sign the Individual Specific Protocol and return it to me no later than March 31, 2004.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at [312] 751-5205. Fr. Kaczorowski may also be reached at [312] 642-1837.

Rev. Richard W. Fassbinder

The Individual Specific Protocols (ISP) implement the primary goal of protecting minors. As long as the cleric is a client of the Office of Professional Responsibility, he will be subject to appropriate protocols, restrictions and monitoring under the authority of the Vicar for Priests and supervised by the Professional Responsibility Administrator (PRA); please refer to protocol number 15. The agreement of a priest or deacon to abide by these protocols is not understood to prove the truth of any allegation and is not intended to be an admission of guilt for any delict or crime, whether in Canon Law, or State and Federal Law. This agreement represents the cooperation of the cleric with his bishop as he exercises his pastoral office (e.g., Canons 369 and 392).

This ISP for Richard Fassbinder is as follows (PRA to initial all that apply):

1. Restricted from being alone with minors (anyone under the age of 18) without the presence of another responsible adult.

OFFICE OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Plaintiffs,

vs.

The Archdiocese of Chicago d/b/a The Catholic
Bishop of Chicago, a corporation sole,

Defendant.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

NOW COMES the Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through their attorneys, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], to obtain declaratory and injunctive relief against Defendant, states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This Complaint seeks declaratory judgment and injunctive relief against the Archdiocese of Chicago. The Archdiocese of Chicago has established a policy of harboring and protecting suspected child molesting agents, thereby endangering numerous children in Illinois.
The Archdiocese has information about a number of suspected child molesting agents that it has never disclosed to law enforcement or the public at large, thereby causing children such as John Doe 100 to be harmed. Further, on information and belief, the Archdiocese has a policy and practice of document destruction. This declaratory relief and injunction action seeks to have the Archdiocese produce all documents regarding the molestation of children by its agents for court supervision, to release the names of all agents accused of molesting children to the court and to the public, and to enjoin the Archdiocese from destroying any documents regarding suspected childhood sexual abuse by its agents.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action because it seeks to redress violations of the plaintiffs' rights and to protect children in Illinois that are in imminent danger. Venue is proper because the Archdiocese resides in Cook County and the majority of the allegations herein involve occurrences in Cook County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff John Doe 100 is a minor. Mother Doe 100 is John Doe 100's mother and legal guardian. At all times material, Plaintiff John Doe 100 was a resident of the State of Illinois. At all times material, Mother Doe 100 was a resident of the State of Illinois.

4. The identities of all Doe Plaintiffs are made known to Defendants through separate cover letter.

5. Plaintiff [REDACTED] is a thirty five year old Chicago resident. [REDACTED] was sexually molested as a child by [REDACTED] a religious order priest who was serving at a parish within the Archdiocese at the time of the abuse.

6. At all times material, the Catholic Bishop of Chicago, a Corporation Sole (hereinafter "Archdiocese of Chicago") was and is an Illinois corporation. Defendant has approximately eight hundred fifty four Diocesan priests serving in two counties in the State of Illinois. At all times material to the complaint, Defendant Archdiocese was conducting business in the State of Illinois.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

7. Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of themselves and, pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-801, as the representatives of the class of persons who have been molested as children by an agent of the Archdiocese of Chicago and on behalf of those children who have not yet been abused, but who are in imminent danger of abuse because the Archdiocese has not released the names and files of agents that have been accused of molesting children or accused of inappropriate sexual behavior with children to either the public or to the court.

8. The Plaintiff class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. In its own self report, the Archdiocese asserted that there were 142 cases where they had reason to suspect that an agent had sexually molested a child. These numbers only include information that was reported to the Archdiocese. The underlying data for the results was not disclosed to the public.

9. There are questions of fact or law common to the class, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The common questions of law or fact include, but are not limited to: whether the Archdiocese of Chicago has failed to protect children by not releasing the names of its agents who have been accused of molesting children to the public and law enforcement and whether the Archdiocese has or is destructing documents in order to cover up or conceal crimes against children by clergy serving in and/or employed by the Archdiocese.

10. The Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. The interests of the plaintiffs are the same as those of all class members because they have all been sexually abused by an agent of the Archdiocese of Chicago or are in danger of being molested by an agent of the Archdiocese of Chicago because the Archdiocese's information is not public. All have an interest in preventing the sexual abuse of any further children by agents of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

11. A class action is an appropriate method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy alleged in this complaint. The expense and burden of individual litigation would make it difficult or impossible for individual members of the class to redress the wrongs done to them. The cost to the court system of adjudication of such individualized litigation would be substantial. Individualized litigation would also present the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments and would magnify the delay and expense to all parties and the court system. By contrast, the conduct of this action as a class action presents far fewer management difficulties, conserves the resources of the parties and court system, and protects the rights of each class member. In addition, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual members of the class would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual class members which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the defendant.

ALLEGATIONS OF FACT

12. [REDACTED] (hereinafter "[REDACTED]") was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago in approximately 1994.

13. At all times material, [REDACTED] was employed by the Archdiocese.

[REDACTED] was an ordained Roman Catholic Priest educated, trained and ordained by, and under the direct supervision, employ, agency and control of the Archdiocese. Among

[REDACTED] duties in his employment was to provide pastoral care and counseling for members of his denomination.

14. In approximately the winter of 2000, a nun at Holy Family Church in Chicago reported to the Archdiocese of Chicago that [REDACTED] asked a fourth-grade boy to pull down his pants in the sacristy at Holy Family.

15. The nun reported this numerous times to the Archdiocese.

16. On information and belief, on one occasion when the nun reported it to the Archdiocese, an official told her that "if the parents aren't pushing it, let it go."

17. After these reports, the nun made a final report to the Archdiocese, this one a written report of [REDACTED] behavior.

18. On information and belief, in 2000, the Archdiocese did not report [REDACTED] to law enforcement, did not tell any of the parishioners at any of the parishes [REDACTED] worked at in the past about the report, did not tell any of the parishioners at any of the parishes where [REDACTED] worked after these reports, and did not tell any other children or parents about the report.

19. On information and belief, after the nun reported the abuse to the Archdiocese, the Archdiocese transferred [REDACTED] to another parish, St. Agatha's in Chicago.

20. On information and belief, despite the report, the Archdiocese allowed [REDACTED] to teach at an Archdiocesan school and coach a boys basketball team.

21. In response to the clergy abuse scandal, the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops passed the Dallas Charter.

22. On information and belief the Bishops passed the Dallas Charter in 2002. The Charter was only enforced, if at all, from within. There was no meaningful external non church oversight over its enforcement.

23. Cardinal Francis George represented to the public that the Charter was a “zero tolerance” policy that committed them to removal of priests in childhood sexual abuse cases. He also represented to the public that a priest with even one act of sexual misconduct with a child should not be allowed in public ministry in order to protect children.

24. In January of 2003, the Archdiocese released a “Ten Year Report” that purported to give information about the Archdiocese’s efforts to stop childhood sexual abuse by clerics in the previous ten years.

25. On information and belief, the Ten Year Report purports to give the current status of priests that were accused of molesting a child anytime from 1993 to 2003. The report indicates that no priest accused of abuse during that time period is in any form of ministry in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

26. The Ten Year Report also states that officials of the Archdiocese have reported all allegations, including those not deemed credible, to the appropriate public authorities.

27. On information and belief, the Archdiocese did not include [REDACTED] in the Ten Year Report.

28. Also in response to the clergy abuse scandal, the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops agreed to participate in a self report survey conducted by the John Jay College.

29. As part of the John Jay survey, each Diocese submitted the number of priests that had allegations of sexual misconduct with a minor within the particular Diocese.

30. On information and belief there was no oversight over the information that was given to the John Jay College. It was completely up to the particular Diocese to respond honestly.

31. The John Jay College defined "allegation," as all recorded notifications of clerical sexual misconduct with minors, whether or not they resulted in any investigation or whether there was reasonable cause to suspect abuse had occurred.

32. In 2004, the Archdiocese reported that it had reason to believe that 55 priests had sexual misconduct with a minor.

33. In 2004, Cardinal George and the Archdiocese represented to the public that there were no priests that were accused of childhood sexual abuse that were in public ministry in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

34. On information and belief, the Archdiocese did not include [REDACTED] in the 2004 John Jay numbers.

35. On information and belief in August of 2005, the Archdiocese learned that law enforcement was investigating [REDACTED] for childhood sexual abuse.

36. On information and belief, in August of 2005, the Archdiocese did not inform the law enforcement that a nun had reported that [REDACTED] had acted in a sexually inappropriate manner with a child in 2000.

37. On information and belief, just as it did in 2000, the Archdiocese did not report or warn any of the parishioners, the public, or the parents at St. Agatha parish that law enforcement was investigating [REDACTED] for childhood sexual abuse.

38. On information and belief, the Archdiocese elevated [REDACTED] to a position of authority in the Archdiocese on September 1, 2005. It appointed him as Dean of a Deanery of the Archdiocese. This is an honored, respected, and supervisory position within the Archdiocese. This meant that [REDACTED] was still at St. Agathas, but also had some supervisory authority over roughly 20 parishes in the Archdiocese.

39. The Archdiocese allowed [REDACTED] to remain at St. Agathas and in the position of Dean until at least January of 2006, more four months after the Archdiocese received at least its second report of sexual misconduct against a minor by [REDACTED].

40. In January of 2006, Chicago law enforcement arrested [REDACTED] and charged him with sexually molesting two boys on multiple occasions.

41. On information and belief, the nun who reported the abuse to the Archdiocese in 2000 was contacted by the Archdiocese the day before [REDACTED] was arrested. The Archdiocese indicated to the nun that it did not have the nun's letter.

42. On information and belief, the Archdiocese also stated publicly that it has no written record of the nun's reports or the actual letter.

43. On information and belief, the Archdioceses and Dioceses across the United States, including the Archdiocese of Chicago, have been instructed to destroy documentation of sexual misconduct by priests and/or to send any of this material to the Holy See in order to claim it is immune from public discovery or disclosure.

44. On information and belief, the Archdiocese has not released the names of the 55 priests that it deemed as having reason to suspect committed sexual misconduct with children.

45. On information and belief, the Archdiocese has also not released the names of any of the other clerics, like [REDACTED], who were accused of sexual misconduct and are still in parishes, but not included in the Ten Year Report or the John Jay Survey.

46. Although the Archdiocese had not released the names of offenders, some names of Archdiocesan clerics accused of sexual misconduct have been released during the course of litigation. These names were released in 2005:

- 1) Richard "Doc" Bartz
- 2) Robert Becker
- 3) R. Peter Bowman
- 4) Daniel Buck
- 5) Eugene Burns
- 6) John Callicott

- 14) Robert Friese
- 15) James Hagan
- 16) Daniel Mark Holihan
- 17) Walter Huppenbauer
- 18) Thomas Job
- 19) Robert Kealy

- 20) John Keehan
- 21) Thomas Kelly
- 22) John "Jack" Keough
- 23) Joseph Kissane
- 24) Leonard Kmak
- 25) William Lupo
- 26) Norbert Maday
- 27) Robert Mayer
- 28) Vincent McCaffrey
- 29) Donald Mulsoff
- 30) Thomas O'Gorman
- 31) James Ray
- 32) John Robinson
- 33) Kenneth Ruge
- 34) Raymond Skriba
- 35) Marion Snieg
- 36) Victor Stewart
- 37) Ralph Strand
- 38) Thomas Swade
- 39) Anthony Vader

47. Names that have not previously been released but who, on information and belief, have been accused of sexual misconduct with a minor:

1) James Flosi

48. There are also a number of religious order priests who worked in the Archdiocese. On information and belief, the Archdiocese had control and/or supervision over these clerics while they were working in the Archdiocese. On information and belief, the Archdiocese knows about these clerics' misconduct. On information and belief, those religious order clerics that have been accused of sexual misconduct are:

- 1) Robert Berlet (Christian Brothers)
- 2) Robert Brouillette (Christian Brothers)
- 3) Vincent Bryce (Dominicans)
- 4) George Dyer (Dominicans)
- 5) Terrence Fitzmaurice (Benedictines)
- 6) John Huels (Servite)
- 7) Augustine Jones (Benedictines)
- 8) Donald McGuire (Jesuits)
- 9) John Murphy (Augustinians)
- 10) Robert Murphy (Camelites)
- 11) Michael O'Connor (Augustinians)
- 12) Jean Baptiste (J.B.) Ormechea (Passionists)
- 13) Eusebio Pantoja (Claretians)
- 14) Thomas Paramo (Claretians)
- 15) Carlos Peralta (Salesians)
- 16) John Powell (Jesuits)

17) Andrew Ronan (Servites)

18) Wilton Skiffington (Jesuits)

19) Patrick Strong (Augustinians)

49. [REDACTED] sexually molested John Doe 100 at some point between approximately 2000 and 2005, when John Doe 100 was a minor child.

50. Neither John Doe 100 nor Mother Doe 100 knew that the Archdiocese had received reports about [REDACTED] sexual abuse of children.

COUNT I
(Injunction - Release of Names)

51. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every paragraph of this complaint as if set forth in Count I.

52. Plaintiffs bring Count I on their own behalf and on behalf of the class of similarly situated persons described in paragraph 7 of this Complaint.

53. The practices of the Archdiocese of Chicago have endangered numerous children in the past and these practices will continue to put children at risk in the future.

54. Plaintiffs and the class have the right to not be sexually molested by clerics of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

55. The Archdiocese owes a duty to warn all children and their parents that come into contact with its clerics of allegations of sexual misconduct by the clerics because these children and their parents hold clerics in an esteemed position, which gives clerics virtually unlimited access to children.

56. The Archdiocese also owes a duty to children and their parents to release all of the names of clerics against whom the Archdiocese has deemed to have credible allegations of sexual misconduct with children to the court and to the public at large.

57. The Archdiocese also owes a duty to children and their parents to release all of the names of clerics that have been accused of sexual misconduct with children to the court and to the public at large.

58. Unless injunctive relief is granted numerous children in Illinois are at risk of being sexually molested by clerics of the Archdiocese.

59. In order to ensure that children are protected and free from sexual molestation by clerics, the plaintiffs and the members of the class are entitled to an injunction ordering that the Archdiocese do the following:

- a) Release the names of all 55 of the priests that it reported to the John Jay Survey to the court and to the public.
- b) Release the names of all other clerics, like [REDACTED], that were not included in the John Jay Survey, but against whom the Archdiocese has received allegations of sexual misconduct by the cleric with children to the court and to the public.

COUNT II
(Injunction - Documents)

60. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every paragraph of this complaint as if set forth in Count II.

61. Plaintiffs bring Count II on their own behalf and on behalf of the class of similarly situated persons described in paragraph 7 of this Complaint.

62. On information and belief, the Archdiocese still has documents that are evidence of crimes committed by clerics against children.

63. The Archdiocese has a duty to the public at large and to law enforcement to not destroy any documents that evidence a crime.

64. The Archdiocese has a duty to children that were abused by clerics to not destroy any documents relating to the sexual misconduct or alleged sexual misconduct of any cleric at anytime in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

65. On information and belief the Archdiocese has destroyed documents and/or concealed documents and/or failed to give documents to law enforcement relating to sexual misconduct or alleged sexual misconduct by clerics of the Archdiocese.

66. Unless injunctive relief is granted, children will be at imminent risk of being molested by clerics of the Archdiocese, law enforcement will be prevented from doing its job, and those children that have already been molested by clerics will have their rights negatively affected.

67. In order to ensure that children are protected and free from sexual molestation by clerics, the plaintiffs and the members of the class are entitled to an injunction ordering that the Archdiocese do the following:

- a) Turn over any document with any connection to any allegation of sexual misconduct by a cleric against a child to the Illinois Courts for supervision of these documents.
- b) Turn over any document with any connection to any allegation of sexual misconduct by a cleric against a child to law enforcement.
- c) Cease in the destruction or spoliation of any documents with any connection to any allegation of sexual misconduct by a cleric against a child.
- d) Cease to conceal or misplace any documents with any connection to any allegation of sexual misconduct by a cleric against a child.

COUNT III
(Declaratory Judgment)

68. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every paragraph of this complaint as if set forth in Count III.

69. Plaintiffs bring Count III on their own behalf and on behalf of the class of similarly situated persons described in paragraph 7 of this Complaint.

70. There is an actual controversy between the plaintiffs and the members of the plaintiff class, on the one hand, and the Archdiocese, on the other hand, concerning whether the Archdiocese is adequately protecting children through its practices of not releasing the names of those clerics that have been accused of molesting children.

71. There is also an actual controversy between the plaintiffs and the members of the plaintiff class, on the one hand, and the Archdiocese, on the other hand, concerning whether the Archdiocese is adequately protecting children through its practice of not removing a cleric that is accused of molesting a child from any position where the cleric has any contact with children.

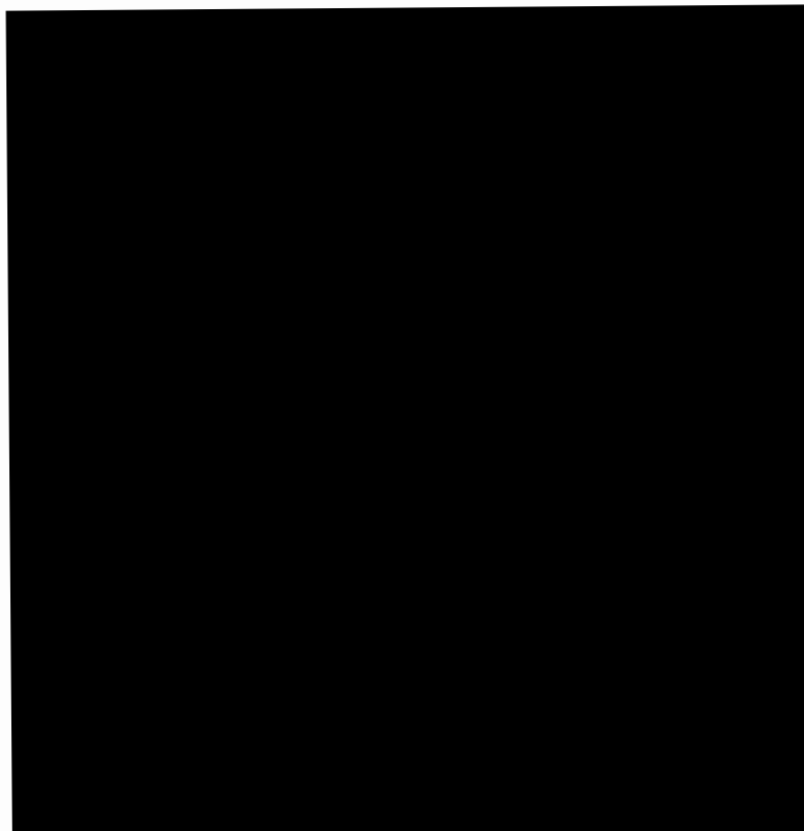

72. Finally, there is an actual controversy between the plaintiffs and the members of the plaintiff class, on the one hand, and the Archdiocese, on the other hand, concerning whether the Archdiocese is adequately protecting children through its practices of destroying and/or concealing documents evidencing allegations of sexual misconduct by clerics.

73. The plaintiffs and members of the plaintiff class are entitled to a declaration that the Archdiocesan practices of not releasing the names of clerics accused of sexual misconduct with minors, not removing clerics that are accused of sexual misconduct with children from positions where they have access to children, and by destroying and/or concealing documents, is not adequate to protect children.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant the relief requested within this complaint or any other relief the Court deems just in order to protect children.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Thank you for your information concerning Father Richard Fassbinder.

It is always nice to hear good things about priests and I am delighted that Father Fassbinder was such an influence in your life. We appreciate you communicating that to us.

You may, or may not know that Father Fassbinder died in May of 2004.

Sincerely,

Sister Pat Cummings, SSND
Associate Director
Vicar for Priests
